With nearly ten years of programming in my belt, I am looking to add more tools to it, ideally as a Web Developer or a video games Programmer. I am a team player, looking to grow professionally and to be Lead in the short term.

C++ Developer

Blind Bend Studio

📅 Dec. 2021 - Dec. 2022

📍 Lyon (full remote), France

Only programmer in a newly founded video games studio, I am:

- Leading the development in Unreal 5, which includes implementing most gameplay features, integrating and maintaining external plugins such as Wwise, keeping up to date with Epic new features;
- Developing tools for the game designer to easily balance the game on his own;
- Collaborating with the tech artist to integrate animations and visual effects;
- Writing technical documentation and keeping track of my progress using the services required.

Computer scientist

Ecoclimasol

📅 Oct. 2017 - Nov. 2021

📍 Montpellier, France

Lead Programmer of Climfarm, a built from scratch service-oriented web platform for people working in agriculture. My main missions:

- Implementation and structuring of Django 2/3 projects including migrating existing developments from PHP (in-house framework), Shell scripts, R scripts, Windev programs;
- International collaboration with Argentina, Vietnam, Mali. Oral and written exchanges in English or French.
- Creation, maintenance and documentation of REST APIs (Climfarm, Ecomore II, App Seguros).

Fullstack Developer

La Poste

📅 Apr. 2016 - Oct. 2017

📍 Montpellier, France

One of fifteen developers working together as two teams, I took part in improving and maintaining the in-house IS, including time sensitive corrective patches requested by the customer services.
